Algarve Rock is a start-up brewery situated in Faro, Portugal brewing British style craft beers for the Portuguese market and targeted international countries. The range of beers are available in Bottles, cans and kegs and have authentic craft beer / real ale flavours created by pure malts, hops and yeast with no additives. Operating out of a new, state of the art facility, Algarve Rock is the largest producer of craft beers in Portugal.

Sunnybarn Investments Limited invested in 2018 and is supporting the continued growth of the business.

Why we Invested:

We were impressed with the quality of the beers, the brewery infrastructure and the enthusiasm and experience of the team.

Phil Buck, Chairman of Sunnybarn Investments Limited said, " We are confident that with our leadership and financial backing, we will carve out a major share of the craft drinks market" .

Algarve Rock will distribute their beers throughout the Iberian Penninsular plus selected overseas markets including the UK.

Our range will be available in bars, restaurants, supermarkets and specialist retailers as well as at our online shop.

Details of Algarve Rock can be found on their website www.algarverock.com
